SIR,

With reference to your docket No. 49 of the 13/14 instant regarding the repairs to Varadarajaswami Temple at Heggaddevankote, I have the honor to state that I have seen the temple. It was built many years ago, and requires a good deal of repairs The inhabitants of the town executed some repairs at a cost of about Rs. 300. The further necessary repairs are estimated to cost about 2000 Rs A regular estimate will be submitted on its receipt from the Muzrai Officer who has been asked to submit one early with his opinion. There is no fund available at the credit of the temple to meet the cost. Meither the amma-

Jasdik which is only Rs 58-3-0 be utilized for the purpose as it is only sufficient to meet the payment of temple servants, and Paditara. The temple being one of some architectural interest and situated in a commanding portion of the town is worth being preserved at Government cost - I would therefore suggest that the repairs may be undertaken from the General funds of the District -

I have the honorable -

Sir,

Your most obedt servant
